

Kids Don't Come with an Instruction Manual. Fortunately, You have RethinkCare.

Whether your child has a learning or developmental disorder, or you are guiding them through other milestones like potty training, academic struggles or changing schools; raising resilient children can leave you feeling isolated and overwhelmed. With RethinkCare, you have expert parenting support right at your fingertips.

Your employer provides this benefit at no cost to you. You and your child's entire care team (including grandparents, aunts and uncles) are eligible to enroll.

Parenting support is optimal for children ages 1-18:

1:1 Appointments* with a dedicated Parenting Expert to address your specific parenting challenges including those of children with autism spectrum disorder and ADHD.

Exclusive content developed to assist your child with socialization, emotional and social skills, academics, and more.

Unlimited access to our website and mobile app with how-to videos and resources to teach crucial skills for everything from potty training to impulse control.

1:1 Parenting Appointments*

- On-staff experts include masters- and doctoral-level practitioners who specialize in working with children with ADHD, autism, and more.
- No preparation required – during the first call, our experts will ask about your challenges and what you hope to learn.
- On-staff experts are open to all parents and caregivers. Your child does not need a neurodiverse identification or diagnosis.
